To: Workers' compensation insurers, self-insured employers, and third-party administrators

Subject: New Medicare reporting requirements

Industry Notice

The Workers' Compensation Division is issuing this notice to inform insurers and self-insured employers of new Medicare secondary payer mandatory reporting requirements being implemented by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS).

The effective date for reporting workers' compensation claim information is July 1, 2009.

Information about the new requirements and steps insurers must take to comply can be found on CMS' Web site: <https://www.cms.hhs.gov/MandatoryInsRep/>. In addition, at the bottom of the Web page, you can sign up to receive e-mail updates and notifications under "Related Links Inside CMS."

Information about the new reporting requirements should be obtained from CMS' Web site, but if you have questions about this notice, please contact Ed Lanssens, policy analyst, at 503-947-7805 or send e-mail to ed.c.lanssens@state.or.us.
