Subject: Reimbursement Under the Supplemental Disability Benefits Program, Re-employment Assistance Program, Reopened Claims Program, and Retroactive Program – Settlements, Dispositions, and Stipulations

INDUSTRY NOTICE

This industry notice provides clarification about what the Workers' Compensation Division requires to process settlements, dispositions, and stipulations for purposes of reimbursement from the Workers' Benefit Fund. Under the Oregon Administrative Rules noted below for each reimbursement program, settlements, dispositions, and stipulations must specify the exact proposed amount in order to be reimbursed by the division.

Reimbursement Program	Oregon Administrative Rule
Supplemental Disability Benefits Program	436-060-0500(6)(a)(A)
Re-employment Assistance Program	436-110-0330(6)(c)(A)
Reopened Claims Program	436-045-0025(3)(a)
Retroactive Program	436-075-0065(2)(a)

If settlements, dispositions, and stipulations do not contain the proposed amount to be reimbursed, the division will not sign them and will not process the reimbursement.

We appreciate your compliance to the requirements of Oregon Administrative Rules. If you have questions about this notice, contact Self-Insurance, Reimbursements, and Registration Manager Adam Breitenstein at 503-947-7751 or adam.j.breitenstein@oregon.gov.
