Our mission is to continuously improve Oregon's workers' compensation system for workers and employers.

We are looking for people who are dedicated to helping create an effective system that restores workers to financial and physical self-sufficiency, while promoting a positive business climate in Oregon.

WCD oversees programs and services that help ensure timely and appropriate medical treatment and time-loss benefits to injured workers, while helping keep costs and burdens low for Oregon employers. The division also administers return-to-work programs that help injured workers return to their previous job or find new employment.

Who we hire

WCD is an equal-opportunity affirmative-action employer that values diversity. We strive to employ workers who reflect the diversity of our customers and believe that a diverse workforce is essential to serve our varied workers' compensation community.

How we serve

- ◆ Enforcing workers' compensation insurance coverage laws.
- ◆ Ensuring injured workers receive timely and accurate benefits and quality medical care.
- ◆ Facilitating injured workers' early return to work through incentive programs to employers.
- ◆ Providing consultation, training, and technical assistance to workers' compensation participants.
- ◆ Administering and overseeing the Workers' Benefit Fund programs.

Where we work

WCD has offices in Salem, Portland, and Medford. Some jobs require travel.

Pay and benefits

WCD offers a competitive salary-and-benefits package. Benefits include health, dental, and vision insurance; public employees' retirement plan; vacation; sick leave; paid holidays; personal leave; and a deferred compensation plan.
