About the web portal document upload application

The document upload application was created to give insurers, self-insured employers, and service companies the ability to securely submit documents directly to the Workers' Compensation Division (WCD).

As of March 2023, the division offers four ways for these customers to submit documents: mail, fax, Biscorn, and the portal. While all of these options remain available for use, the division strongly encourages insurers, self-insured employers, and service companies to use the portal because of its ease of use and security.

You can access WCD's portal by clicking the link at the top of the WCD webpage (wcd.oregon.gov) or pasting the web address in your preferred browser: <https://www4.cbs.state.or.us/exs/wcd/portal/>

While WCD and the Workers' Compensation Board (WCB) perform similar functions related to workers' compensation, each entity maintains separate web portals that provide different services. Companies should ensure they use the correct portal to communicate with each government entity.

Who can upload documents?

At this time, the portal is designed for use by insurers, self-insured employers, and service companies. The division is exploring ways to add additional user types in the future.

All active insurers, self-insured employers, and service companies should currently have a portal account. Call the WCD Resource and Technology Support Unit manager at 503-947-7600 if your company is newly active in Oregon and does not have a portal account.

To be added as a portal user for your company's account, contact a document upload application administrator within your company for help. If you don't know who your administrator is, contact WCD at 503-947-7565.

Instructions for managing your active user accounts can be found here.

Current application administrators may choose to manage new users or organizations can appoint additional account administrators.

What documents can I upload using the document upload application?

Users can upload these document types:

- Audit referrals
- Audit responses
- Appellate review dispute responses
- Medical resolution dispute responses
- Vocational dispute responses
- Employer-at-Injury-Program (EAIP) reimbursement requests

Unlike other portal applications, only PDFs may be uploaded. One file can be uploaded at a time with a file-size limit of 150MB.

The division will continue to evaluate other documents to add to this list.

Annual audit payment data and report-of-loss-information will continue to be uploaded using the annual audit or self-insured portal applications.

User account administration

Your company will need to assign application administrator(s) to manage your users' access for each WCD portal application. An application administrator can add, modify, or delete users for each application. Companies have the ability to select multiple administrators for each portal application.

If your organization has not designated an application administrator for a specific application, or the designee is no longer in that role, your company should choose someone and have them contact WCD at 503-947-7565.

Frequently asked questions

Q: I work for an insurance company. When I log in to the portal, the first screen I see shows a drop-down list with only one insurance company selection available. I need to upload documents for multiple insurers within my insurer group.

A: The landing page shows a list of companies that you are currently associated with in the other WCD portal applications. Selecting an insurer is not a requirement to submit documents to the document upload application, but it is helpful for us to direct where the document should be forwarded. You can simply go to the document upload tab, fill out the form, and enter the WCD insurer number of the insurer for whom you are uploading the document.

Q: I work for a service company, and the insurer for whom I'm trying to upload a document is not in the drop-down list on the Upload PDF Document page or the main page after I log in to the portal.

A: The insurer you are attempting to upload the document for may be currently inactive in our data system. Inactive insurers will not appear in the drop-down list. You can simply go to the document upload tab, fill out the form, and enter the WCD insurer number of the insurer for whom you are uploading the document.

If you believe the insurer you are trying to access is currently active in Oregon, email wcd.portal@dcbs.oregon.gov or call 503-947-7565. Each company with an active portal account has identified an account administrator to manage users. Instructions for managing active account users can be found here.

Q: Do existing organization application administrators have to manage new users uploading documents?

A: This will be up to each organization to decide. The division recognizes that the documents may need to be submitted by different working units within organizations. Current application administrators may choose to manage new users or organizations can appoint additional application administrators.
