

BEFORE THE DIRECTOR OF THE
DEPARTMENT OF CONSUMER AND BUSINESS SERVICES OF THE STATE OF OREGON

In the Matter of the Amendment of)
Oregon Administrative Rules (OAR))	ORDER OF ADOPTION OF Chapter 436, Division 001,)	TEMPORARY RULES
)	No. 03-067
Procedural Rules Governing Rulemaking and Hearings)

The Director of the Department of Consumer and Business Services, pursuant to the rulemaking authority in ORS 656.726(4), and in accordance with the procedure provided by ORS 183.335(5), temporarily amends OAR Chapter 436, Division 001, "Procedural Rules Governing Rulemaking and Hearings."

EXPLANATION

This temporary rule implement changes in the law due to legislation passed by the 2003 Oregon Legislature. Enrolled Senate Bill 620 requires payment of fees to workers' attorneys when a claimant prevails, after a proceeding has commenced before the director, in certain medical and vocational disputes. The attorney fee must be based on all work the attorney has done relative to the proceeding at all levels before the department, including the contested case level. This rule includes a matrix for determining fees that is based on the estimated results achieved and the attorney's time devoted to the case.

FINDINGS

Failure to act promptly will result in serious prejudice to the public interest.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

- (1) Temporary amendments to OAR Chapter 436, Division 001, Procedural Rules Governing Rulemaking and Hearings, as set forth in Exhibit "A," attached hereto and incorporated by reference herein, are adopted on this 12th day of December, 2003 to be effective January 1, 2004 through June 28, 2004.
- (2) The Statement of Need and Justification, attached hereto, is by this reference incorporated herein.
- (3) The rules amended, the Certificate and Order for Filing, and the Statement of Need and Justification shall immediately be filed with the Secretary of State.

PLEASE NOTE: Temporary rule 0265 has been issued as administrative order 03-067. The entire division has been republished to provide all rules effective as of January 1, 2004.

- (4) The rules amended, with revision marks, shall be filed with Legislative Counsel, pursuant to ORS 183.715 within ten (10) days after filing with the Secretary of State.

Dated this 12th day of December, 2003.

436-001-0030 Role of the Workers' Compensation Division

(1) In any proceeding under these rules, the director's designee, the WCD, is entitled to notice of all matters, copies of all documents and to present evidence, testimony and argument.

(2) The director's designee, the WCD, may appear and be represented by a contested case representative, assistant attorney general or special assistant attorney general as authorized by the Department of Justice.

(3) If necessary, the presiding officer shall continue the hearing to allow the presentation of oral or written legal argument by the Department of Justice.

(4) In any proceeding where the director's designee, the WCD, chooses to be represented, the director's representative shall be served with notice of hearing and all documents provided to and by the parties.

436-001-0045 Rights of Parties in Contested Cases

(1) The presiding officer shall explain the issues and the matters the party must prove or disprove. The presiding officer shall also inform a party, if the party is an agency, corporation, or an unincorporated association, that such party must be represented by an attorney licensed in Oregon, unless statutes applicable to the contested case proceeding specifically provide otherwise. This information may be given in writing or orally before the commencement of the hearing.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION DIVISION
PROCEDURAL RULES GOVERNING RULEMAKING AND HEARINGS

(2) Upon the agreement of the division and the parties, and unless otherwise precluded by law, alternative methods of dispute resolution may be used in contested case matters. Such alternative methods of resolution may include non-binding arbitration, modified contested case proceedings, non-record abbreviated hearings or any collaborative method designed to encourage the division and the parties to work together to develop a mutually agreeable solution, such as negotiation, mediation, use of a neutral facilitator or settlement conferences, but may not include binding arbitration.

(3) Final disposition of contested cases may be by a final hearing order or, unless precluded by law, by stipulation, agreed settlement, consent order or final order by default. Informal settlement may be made in license revocation proceedings by written agreement of the parties and the director consenting to a suspension, fine or other form of intermediate sanction.

436-001-0055 Request by a Person to Participate as a Party or Limited Party

(1) When the division gives notice that it intends to hold a contested case hearing, persons who have an interest in the outcome of the proceeding or who represent a public interest in such result may request to participate as parties or limited parties.

(2) A person requesting to participate as a party or limited party shall file a notice of appearance with the presiding officer at least 14 days before the hearing and shall copy all other parties with the notice.

(3) The notice of appearance shall include the following:

(a) Name and address of the party;

(b) Name and address of the party's attorney, if any;

(c) If the party wishes to limit its participation to that of a limited party, the notice should so indicate and state the precise area in which participation is sought;

(d) If the party seeks to protect a personal interest in the outcome of the proceeding, a detailed statement of the party's interest economic or otherwise, and how such interest may be affected by the results of the proceeding;

(e) If the party seeks to represent a public interest in the results of the proceeding, a detailed statement of such public interest, the manner in which such public interest will be affected by the results of the proceeding, and the party's qualifications to represent such public interest; and

(f) A statement of the reasons why existing parties to the proceeding cannot adequately represent the interests identified in subsections (3)(d) or (e) of this rule.

(4) Each party shall have seven days from the date of mailing to file a response to the notice of appearance.

436-001-0065 Request by Agency to Participate as a Party or an Interested Agency

(1) When the division gives notice that it intends to hold a contested case hearing, it may also notify the parties that it intends to name any other agency that has an interest in the outcome of that proceeding as a party or as an interested agency, either on its own initiative or upon request by that other agency.

(2) Each party shall have seven days from the date of personal service or mailing of the notice to file objections.

(3) The division's decision to name an agency as a party or as an interested agency shall be by written order and served promptly on the parties and the named agency.

(4) An agency named as a party or as an interested agency has the same procedural rights and shall be given the same notices, as any party in the proceeding. An interested agency, unlike a party, has no right to judicial review.

(5) An agency may not be named as a party under this rule without written authorization of the Attorney General.

PROCEDURAL RULES GOVERNING RULEMAKING AND HEARINGS

(2) The purposes of a prehearing conference may include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following:

- (a) to facilitate discovery and to resolve disagreements about discovery;
 - (b) to identify, simplify and clarify issues, as well as eliminate irrelevant issues;
 - (c) to obtain stipulations of fact;
 - (d) to discuss settlement or other resolution or partial resolution of the case;
 - (e) for any other good cause determined by the presiding officer.
- (3) The prehearing conference may be conducted in person or by telephone.

(4) The presiding officer shall make a record, either audio or stenographic, of any stipulations, rulings and agreements. Stipulations to facts and to the authenticity of documents and agreements to narrow issues shall be binding upon the parties unless good cause is shown for rescinding a stipulation or agreement. Settlement discussions are not a part of the record.

methods, timing and extent of discovery. Nothing, however, in this rule prevents informal exchanges of information.

(2) Discovery may include, but is not limited to, one or more of the following:

- (a) depositions;
- (b) disclosure of names and addresses of witnesses expected to testify at the hearing;
- (c) production of documents, which may but need not be limited to documents that the party producing the documents plans to offer as evidence;
- (d) production of objects for inspection or permission to enter upon land to inspect land or other property;
- (e) requests for admissions;
- (f) written interrogatories;
- (g) prehearing conferences, as provided in OAR 436-001-0105.

(3) Before requesting a discovery order, a party shall seek the discovery through an informal exchange of information.

(4)(a) A party that seeks to take the testimony of a material witness by deposition shall file a written request with the presiding officer. The request shall set forth the name and address of the witness, an explanation of the materiality of the witness's testimony, an explanation of why a deposition rather than informal or other means of discovery is necessary, and a request that the witness's testimony be taken before an officer named in the request for the purpose of recording testimony.

(b) For all other forms of discovery, a request for discovery order shall be in writing and shall include a description of the attempts to obtain the requested discovery informally. The request shall be mailed or delivered to the presiding officer, with a copy to the other parties. The presiding officer shall consider any objections by the party from whom discovery is sought.

(5) Any discovery request shall be reasonably likely to produce information that is generally relevant to the case. If the relevance of the requested discovery is not apparent, the presiding officer may require the party requesting discovery to explain how the request is likely to produce relevant information. If the request appears to be unduly burdensome, the presiding officer may require an explanation of why the requested information is necessary or is likely to facilitate resolution of the case.

(6) The presiding officer may issue an order granting a discovery request in whole or in part.

(7) The presiding officer may refuse to admit evidence which has not been disclosed in response to a discovery order, unless the party that failed to provide discovery offers a satisfactory reason for having failed to do so or unless excluding the evidence would violate the duty to conduct a full and fair inquiry under ORS 183.415(10). If the presiding officer admits evidence which was not disclosed as ordered, the presiding officer may grant a continuance to allow an opportunity for the other parties to respond.

436-001-0140 Subpoenas

(1) The attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of documents or physical evidence under the witnesses' control or possession, may be compelled by subpoena.

(2) Subpoenas may be issued by the director, the presiding officer, other designees of the director any party authorized by the presiding officer, or the attorney of the party in whose behalf the witnesses are required to appear.

(3) If the hearing is by telephone, at least two days before hearing, the party who subpoenaed the witness shall provide to the presiding officer, the name of the witness and telephone number where the witness can be reached at the time of the hearing.

(4) Witnesses appearing by subpoena, unless a party, or an officer or employee of the department, shall be paid the fees and mileage required by ORS 44.415(2) by the party who subpoenas them, other than employers, their officers and representatives subpoenaed by the director.

436-001-0150 Change of Presiding Officer

(1) If the presiding officer has a potential conflict of interest as defined in ORS 244.020, the presiding officer shall withdraw from the case or advise the parties of the nature of the conflict.

(2) Any party may request, by motion, that the presiding officer be removed from a case on the grounds of personal bias or conflict of interest by filing with the director, promptly upon discovery of the alleged facts, an affidavit which sets forth the grounds for disqualification.

(a) The presiding officer may withdraw from the case.

(b) If the director finds the request for disqualification is filed with due diligence, and the supporting affidavit is sufficient on its face, the director shall either disqualify the presiding officer and assign another presiding officer to the case, or order a hearing on the allegation in the affidavit.

(c) If the director does not disqualify the presiding officer, the director shall state the grounds and so rule on the record.

436-001-0175 Conducting a Contested Case Hearing

(1) The contested case hearing shall be conducted by and under the control of the presiding officer, so as to include the following:

(a) The statement and evidence of the petitioner in support of its action;

(b) The statement and evidence of respondent, interested agencies, and other parties, except that subject areas of the limited parties shall be confined to the area of participation granted by the presiding officer;

(c) Any rebuttal evidence; and

(d) Any closing arguments.

(2) Presiding officers, interested agencies and parties shall have the right to question witnesses. However, questions of witnesses by limited parties shall be confined to the area of participation granted by the presiding officer.

436-001-0185 Hearings

(1) At the discretion of the presiding officer, hearings may be conducted either by telephone or in-person.

(2) A party desiring an in-person hearing shall make a written request. In-person contested case hearings are held in Salem, Oregon except when the presiding officer authorizes a hearing outside of Salem.

(3) Upon prior arrangement and approval of the presiding officer, a party or witness for an in-person hearing may appear by telephone.

(4) The presiding officer shall make an audio recording of any hearing.

(5) Prior to commencement of a hearing, each party and the division shall provide to all other parties, presiding officer and to the division, copies of documentary evidence that it will seek to introduce into the record.

(6) Nothing in this rule precludes any party or the division from seeking to introduce documentary evidence in addition to evidence described in subsection (5) during the hearing. The presiding officer may receive such evidence, subject to the applicable rules of evidence, if inclusion of the evidence in the record is necessary to conduct a full and fair hearing. When new evidence is introduced, the other parties may request an opportunity to submit rebuttal evidence. The presiding officer may allow the admission of rebuttal evidence. If any evidence introduced during the hearing has not previously been provided to the presiding officer, to the division and to the other parties, the hearing may be continued for sufficient time to allow the party or the division to obtain and review the evidence.

(7) The presiding officer may recess the hearing to discuss any of the matters listed in OAR 436-001-0105(2).

436-001-0191 Evidence

(1) Evidence of a type commonly relied upon by reasonably prudent persons in the conduct of their serious affairs shall be admissible.

(2) Irrelevant, immaterial or unduly repetitious evidence shall be excluded.

(3) Subject to the presiding officer's discretion to exclude irrelevant, immaterial or unduly repetitious matter, all offered evidence, not objected to, will be received.

(4) Evidence objected to may be received by the presiding officer. Rulings on its admissibility or exclusion, if not made at the hearing, shall be made on the record at or before the time a final order is issued.

(5) The presiding officer shall accept an offer of proof made for excluded evidence. The offer of proof shall contain sufficient detail to allow the reviewing agency or court to determine whether the evidence was properly excluded. The presiding officer has discretion to decide whether the offer of proof is to be oral or written and at what stage in the proceeding it will be made. The presiding officer may place reasonable limits on the offer of proof, including the time to be devoted to an oral offer or the number of pages in a written offer.

436-001-0240 Exhibits and Exchange of Exhibits

(1) The division shall provide the parties and the presiding officer legible copies of all documents that were relied upon in the underlying administrative review, together with an index. The index shall include a description of each document, author, number of pages and date of the document. The documents shall be arranged in chronological order and designated by numbers in the lower right corner of each page, beginning with the document of earliest date. Pagination of multiple-page documents shall be designated by the document number, followed by the page number. For example, page two of document five may be marked as "Exhibit 5, page 2" or "Ex. 5-2," etc.

(a) Not less than fourteen days before the hearing, or within seven days of receipt of the division's document index and documents, whichever is later, the petitioner(s) shall provide the other parties and the presiding officer legible copies of any additional documents that they will offer at hearing. The additional documents shall be marked and accompanied by a supplemental document index, numbered to coincide in chronological order with the division's documents. For example, a document which is chronologically between documents five and six of the division's documents may be marked as "Exhibit 5a," "Ex. 5a," etc.

(b) Not less than seven days before the hearing, the respondent(s)/cross-petitioner(s) shall provide to the other parties and the presiding officer legible copies of any additional documents that they will offer at hearing in the same manner as provided by the petitioner(s).

(2) If photographs are used as exhibits, each party and the presiding officer shall be provided with a set of the photos.

(3) All exhibits offered, whether or not admitted into evidence, unless withdrawn, shall be part of the record in the case.

(4) At the discretion of the presiding officer, to accompany the record, an accurate description or photograph of an object or real evidence may be substituted for such object or real evidence. The party offering such evidence shall be responsible for providing the description or photograph, and for retaining custody of the object until the case is closed.

436-001-0275 Proposed and Final Orders, Filing Exceptions

(1) When the division serves a proposed and final order on the parties, the division shall notify the parties:

(a) That, in order to be considered by the division, written exceptions shall be filed within 30 days of the date of service of the proposed and final order; and

(b) When and in what form argument may be made to the administrator who will render the final order.

(c) That written responses by other parties shall be filed within 20 days of service of the exceptions and a reply, if any, shall be filed within 10 days of service of the responses.

(2) If no exceptions are filed, the proposed and final order becomes final 30 days after the date of service of the order, subject to subsection (4).

(3) If exceptions are filed, the administrator may adopt the proposed order or prepare a new order.

(4) Nothing in this rule prohibits the staff of a non-party agency from commenting on the proposed order or the administrator from revising the proposed and final order, even if no exceptions are filed by the parties.

(5) "Date of service" means the date of mailing or delivery.

referred to as an emergency suspension order. An emergency suspension order shall be in writing and may be issued without prior notice to the licensee or an opportunity for a hearing as required for contested cases under ORS chapter 183.

(2)(a) Except when the danger to the public health or safety is so imminent that opportunity for the licensee to object under subsection (3) of this rule is not practicable as determined by the director, the director shall provide the licensee with notice and opportunity to object prior to issuing the emergency suspension order. For purposes of this rule, this notice is referred to as a pre-suspension notice.

(b) The pre-suspension notice shall:

(A) Describe generally the acts of the licensee and the circumstances that would be grounds for revocation, suspension or refusal to renew the license under the director's usual procedures;

(B) Describe generally the reasons why the acts of the licensee and the circumstances seriously and immediately endanger the public's health or safety; and

(C) Identify a person who the licensee may contact and who is authorized to issue the emergency suspension order or to make recommendations regarding the issuance of the emergency suspension order.

(c) The director may provide the pre-suspension notice to the licensee in writing, orally or by any other means available.

(3) Following the pre-suspension notice, the director shall provide the licensee an immediate opportunity to respond to the pre-suspension notice before a person authorized to issue the emergency suspension order or to make recommendations regarding the issuance of the emergency suspension order. An emergency suspension order may be issued anytime thereafter.

(4)(a) When the director issues an emergency suspension order, the director shall serve the order on the licensee either personally or by registered or certified mail.

(b) The order shall include the following statements:

(A) Those required under ORS 183.415(2) and (3);

(B) That the licensee has the right to demand a hearing to be held as soon as practicable to contest the emergency suspension order;

(C) That if the demand for hearing is not received by the division within 90 days of the date of notice of the emergency suspension order the licensee shall have waived its right to a hearing under ORS chapter 183;

(D) The effective date of the emergency suspension order;

(E) Findings of the specific acts or omissions of the licensee that are grounds for revocation, suspension or refusal to renew the license, and the reasons these acts or omissions seriously and immediately endanger the public's health or safety; and

(F) That the director may combine the hearing on the emergency suspension order with any other proceedings before the director affecting the license. The procedures for a combined proceeding shall be those applicable to the other proceeding affecting the license.

(5)(a) If timely requested by the licensee, the director shall hold a hearing on the emergency suspension order as soon as practicable.

(b) At the hearing, the division shall consider the facts and circumstances including, but not limited to:

(A) Whether the acts or omissions of the licensee pose a serious danger to the public's health or safety; and

(B) Whether circumstances at the time of the hearing justify confirmation, alteration or revocation of the order.

RULE SUMMARY

These temporary rules reflect changes in the law due to legislation passed by the 2003 Oregon Legislature:

- Senate Bill 233 changes the time frame for appeal of a proposed order or proposed assessment of civil penalty from 60 days following the party's receipt of notice to 60 days from the date the order is mailed by the department. This change has been incorporated into OAR 436-010, 436-015, 436-030, and 436-120.
- Senate Bill 285 allows an insurer or self-insured employer to contest its Notice of Closure in certain circumstances, and OAR 436-030 has been revised accordingly.
- Senate Bill 620 requires payment of fees to workers' attorneys when a claimant prevails at the administrative level in certain medical and vocational disputes or when the attorney is instrumental in obtaining a settlement. This fee provision has been included in OAR 436-001, 436-009, 436-010, and 436-120.
- House Bill 2305 addresses how medical records may be released, consistent with the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act, and OAR 436-010 has been revised to be consistent with chapter 429, OL 2003.
- House Bill 3669 gives additional authority to nurse practitioners to treat injured workers and authorize temporary disability payments. OAR 436-009, 436-010, 436-015, and 436-030 have been amended to reflect this change. This bill was a result of legislative action after development of the legislative concepts by nurse practitioners and the Management Labor Advisory Committee.

Need for the Temporary Rules: These temporary rules are needed to implement changes in the law due to legislation passed by the 2003 Oregon Legislature:

- Senate Bill 233 changes the time frame for appeal of a proposed order or proposed assessment of civil penalty from 60 days following the party's receipt of notice to 60 days from the date the order is mailed by the department.
- Senate Bill 285 allows an insurer or self-insured employer to contest its Notice of Closure in certain circumstances.

- House Bill 2305 addresses how medical records may be released, consistent with the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act.
- House Bill 3669 gives additional authority to nurse practitioners to treat injured workers and authorize temporary disability payments.

Documents Relied Upon: Enrolled Senate Bills 233, 285, and 620. Enrolled House Bills 2305 and 3669. These documents are available for public review from the Administrator's Office, Department of Consumer and Business Services, Workers' Compensation Division, Labor and Industries Building, 350 Winter Street N.E., Salem, Oregon 97301-3879, during regular business hours, between 8:00 am and 5:00 pm, Monday through Friday.

Justification of Temporary Rule(s): Failure to act promptly will result in serious prejudice to the public interest or the interest of the parties concerned, primarily Oregon employers, insurers, self-insured employers, managed care organizations, nurse practitioners, other medical providers, injured workers, and attorneys representing injured workers. These temporary rules are needed to bring administrative rules into alignment with Oregon Laws 2003.
