(2) Discovery may include but is not limited to one or more of the following:

- (b) Disclosure of names and addresses of witnesses expected to testify at the hearing;
- (c) Production of documents, which may, but need not, be limited to documents which the party producing the documents plans to offer as evidence;

If the request appears to be unduly burdensome, the hearing officer, may require an explanation of why the requested information is necessary or is likely to facilitate resolution of the case.

(6) The hearing officer shall issue an order granting or denying a discovery request in whole or in part.

(7) Only the Director or the hearing officer may issue subpoenas in support of discovery. The Director may apply to the circuit court to compel obedience to a subpoena.

(8) The hearing officer may refuse to admit evidence which has not been disclosed in response to a discovery order, unless the party that failed to provide discovery offers a satisfactory reason for having failed to do so or unless excluding the evidence would violate the duty to conduct a full and fair inquiry under ORS 183.415(10). If the hearing officer admits

(3) The hearing officer may withdraw if the hearing officer believes the motion has merit.

(4) If the director finds the request for disqualification is filed with due diligence, and the supporting affidavit is sufficient on its face, the director shall either disqualify the hearing officer and assign another hearing officer to the case, or order a hearing on the allegation in the affidavit.
